The Catholic Home Mission Appeal primarily supports home mission dioceses, that is, those dioceses in the United States unable to offer their people the basic pastoral ministries of word, worship, and service without outside help. About 40 percent of U.S. dioceses are missionary territory, including the Diocese of Jefferson City. Last year, our diocese received $70,000 in a grant from the appeal to help support our Hispanic ministry office. The remaining funds were sent on to the national office to help support other rural dioceses.

You will find your envelope marked "Catholic Home Missions Appeal" in your April packet. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Spiritual Opportunities

Happy Easter! It was a thankful day to be able to celebrate as a Church Community and with our families this year. Thank you, Jesus! Some of our programs are coming to a close until the Fall, but it is important that we continue to grow in our spiritual health and service to others, (Corporal Works of Mercy). Listed below are some websites to continue to grow in our spiritual health, check them out.

Book: "Consecration to St. Joseph" by Fr. Donald Calloway. Pope Francis has dedicated this year to St. Joseph, protector for the Church. I highly recommend this book for individuals, families and our parish to consecrate themselves to St. Joseph, our loving spiritual father and for the protection of our Church.

Memorare to St. Joseph

Remember, O MOST CHASTE SPOUSE of the VIRGIN MARY, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, our sought thy intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto you, my spiritual father, and beg your protection. O FOSTER FATHER of the REDEEMER, despise not my petitions, but in your goodness hear and answer me. AMEN
