The Pregnancy Help Center of Jefferson City is in desperate need of an RN to fill a position at their clinic. The job is just two days a week, Tuesday and Thursday. The hours and days are very flexible. It is a paid position. This position would be ideal for a retired RN seeking to stay active. Ultrasound training will be provided. If you are an RN with a heart to save babies and help women and men please contact PHC at 573-644-6635.

Summer Picnic Silent Quilt Auction 2021:

St. Stanislaus Quilting Group will hold a "Silent Auction" on the day of the annual Picnic, July 18, 2021. The quilts will be displayed or viewed in church from 11:30 – 5:00 pm on that day. Pictures of the quilts will be placed in the rear of church, on the St. Stanislaus Quilting Group Facebook page, and on the website. Anyone wishing to place an early bid may do so on the St. Stanislaus Quilting Group Facebook page one week prior to the picnic date. Bidding will also continue throughout the day on the picnic similar to the 2020 Fall Auction. The "Silent Auction will close approximately at 5:00 pm.

The Quilters are very proud of their work and excited for the upcoming Silent Auction. Please join in supporting their beautiful efforts, time, and talents they bring to assist in raising funds for our parish. We are thankful and blessed with the Quilting Group as they have many creative and beautifully designed quilts to offer to St. Stanislaus Parishioners and Patrons.

Homemade Pies: The picnic committee is in need of 400 homemade pies to serve with our drive-thru meals on July 18th. Please sign up at the back of church if you are able to make 3 pies to contribute towards this project. No cream or refrigerated pies. Thank you.

A Special Invitation:
